1. What have you changed about your process in this subject based on your personal reflection?

I've started breaking assignments into smaller, focused tasks and planning ahead, which helps me tackle challenges methodically.

2. What do you still need to change in terms of your approach, application, time on task, attitude, etc.?

I need to eliminate distractions and set clearer, more consistent study sessions to maximize my focus and productivity.

3. What are you doing well in the subject so far that you will keep doing?

I'm actively engaging with the material—taking detailed notes—which deepens my understanding and I plan to continue this habit.

4. What do you need to stop or change in your work for this subject overall so far?

I need to stop underestimating the time required for complex tasks and avoid last-minute rushes by starting earlier.

5. What is one request you have or change you suggest for this subject and/or your IT degree overall?

I don't think there is anything that needs to be improved.The teacher explained it very clearly.
